NEWS FROM THE SUBURBS.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

YONKERS.

An important meeting of the Committee of the Whole of the Yonkers Common Council was held in the Mayor's office in Manor Hall on Monday night. The heads of the several city departments were present, and were informed as to the amount of money remaining to the credit of each. They were present, and were informed as to the amount of money remaining to the credit of each. They were cautioned to run their several departments as economically as possible, for the new charier prohibited any department from overdrawing its account. Yonkers has almost reached the 10 per cent limit in its bond issue, and it is feared many improvements that had been planned will have to be given up in consequence. It is expected by the next meeting of the Council it will be known definately just what improvements can be made this year.

next meeting of the Council it will be known inately just what improvements can be made this year.

On Monday night en Orpheus Society was formed in Yonkers by the members of Adoif Dahm-Petersen's cantata class. Mr. Root was chosen president; Miss Hauemmer, vice-president; Miss Justus, secretary; Miss Raieigh, librarian; Miss Stengel, secretary; Miss Raieigh, librarian; Miss Stengel, secretary; Miss Raieigh, librarian; Miss Stengel, Miss Tompkins. Mr. Conavan and Mr. Machin, Advisory Committee. The society will begin rehearsing Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise" in October. A large number of the friends of the Woman's Institute gathered in its hall, in Pallsade-ave, on Monday to celebrate its fifteenth anniversary. Miss Mary Marshall Butler, the president, presided, and in her address reviewed briefly the growth of the institution from its origin as a Free Library for Soif-suporting Women to its present wide field of usefulness. Miss Butler thought the outlook for the institute was very bright. She was followed by Mrs. Truman J. Backus, president of the Woman's Club, of Brooklyn, and the Rev. S. Parkes Cadman, paster of the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, at Morris-st, and Livingston-ave. He was assisted in the ceremony by Archieacon Van Kleeck, the Rev. Walpole Warren, the Rev. Alexander B. Carver and the Rev. James P. Free-pan, pastor of the church.

NEW-JERSEY.

JERSEY CITY.

Joseph Crawford, Superintendent of the New-York and Philadelphia Division of the Pennsylvania Rail-road, has sent word to his friends from California road, has sent word to his friends from California that his health has greatly improved, and that he will soon be able to resume his duties. Mr. Crawford was troubled with insomnia, and for a time was confined in a hospital.

By a vote of 3 to 2, the Board of Finance last night concurred in the resolution of the Street and Water Commissioners to advertise for a new water supply. Commissioners Hardenbergh and Jones opposed the concurring and filed a protest against who was thoroughly familiar with the requirements of the city and the New-Jersey watersheds. The protest expressed the opinion that all specifications heretofore prepared had been done with a view to limit the bidding.

NEW-BRUNSWICK.

The State Supreme Court, at Trenton, yesterday morning, on application of Alian H. Strong, granted a writ of certificari removing the electric railway ordinance of New-Brunswick to the Supreme Court, a will of certificate of New-Brunswick to the Supreme Court, together with all proceedings of the City Council in connection with its passage. The prosecutors of in connection with its passage. The prosecutors of the writ are William B, and Mary Vannostwick, of George-st, and Throop-ave., who allege that the George-st, and Throop-ave. Who allege that the groups from horses to electricity will be an injury to their property, and that the tracks of the company in turning this corner will be so close to the curb that there will not be room for a horse and wagon to pass between. It is generally understood that while the Vannostwicks appear as the ostensible prosecutors, the real opponent of the project is the Raritan River Rallroad Company. The opposition of the rallroad company is due to the fear that the trolley company intends to extend its lines from this city to South Amboy, thus coming in competition with the rallroad company. This with has been served on Mayor Williamson, and it will act as a stay of proceedings.

Senator Foster M. Voorhees, of Elizabeth, has been invited to deliver the Fourth of July ora-tion in Newark by the Common Council committee.

The property of the Orange Mountain Cable Company was put up at auction at the Courthouse yesterday. Less than a dozen persons were present. The property was subject to a mortgage of $250,000, which was to be assumed by the buyer. No bid was offered, and the sale was indefinitely postponed.

Dostponed.

Captain Edward Bergen, of the Fourth Police Captain Edward Bergen, of the Fourth Police Commissioners last night. It was accepted without comment. Captain Bergen was suspended from duty on Decoration Day morning for reporting at Headquarters in a semi-intoxicated condition. He Headquarters in a semi-intoxicated condition. He has served twenty-nine years on the force, without a scratch on his record heretofore.

Hill. The committee on the subject announced "No report," and when later Freeholder Feurstein tried to force a test vote on the question, he was shut off by the passage of a motion to adjourn. The Board's first step would be to apply to Judge Dixon, of the Circuit Court, for the appointment of commissioners, who, under a law passed by the Legislature last winter, would have power to bond the county to the extent of $20,000 for the building.

BAYONNE.

Two victims of Monday afternoon's intense heat died in Bayonne on Monday night. The first to succumb was Patrick Ryan, fifty years old, of No. 18 West Tenth-st., Bergen Point, a teamster employed in the Tide Water Oil Company's establishment at Constable Hook. He was overcome while at work, and was taken home. He did not regain consciousness before he died. The other victim was Michael Halligan, forty-two years old, of West Sixteenth-st., Centreville, a laborer employed in Sixteenth-st., Centreville, a laborer employed in the Bayonne Chemical Company's establishment at Constable Hook. He was also at work when prostrated, and he never railled. Each victim left a widow and several children. amb was Patrick Ryan, fifty years old, of No.

ELIZABETH.

The will of ex-Governor Robert S. Green has been filed and admitted to probate by Surrogate

THE JURY-BOX FULL ONCE MORE.

ELEVEN OF THE M'LAUGHLIN JURORS SWORN IN-THE TWELFTH MAY BE CHALLENGED.

The trial of Inspector McLaughlin, who is accused of extortion, was resumed yesterday morning in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, before Justice Borrett. This is the thirteenth day of the second trial, and the twelfth seat was still vacant. court opened seven of the eleven jurors in the box had been sworn, while the remaining four are pro-visional. During the morning session a number of talesmen were examined and excused.

After recess the search for the twelfth juror was Edmund T. H. Gibson, secretary-treasurer of the Dilinois Central Railroad, Nos. 214 Broadway and ors represented new interests in the company that the changes had been made in view of both sides, and took the twelfth seat in the box plans to consolidate the Brooklyn gas companies provisionally. It was now 2:40 o'clock.

Justice Barrett then said that Donald M. Kennedy, the eighth provisional juror, had informed him that he had neglected to state some important inmation in his examination. Mr. Kennedy then "I forgot to state," said he, ed to the Ancient Order of United Work-

District-Attorney Fellows then challenged Mr. Kennedy and Mr. Elkus excepted. Judge Barrett sustained the challenge, and Kennedy left the box. The jurors moved up one seat in the box, and the twelfth seat was once more vacant.

The work of selecting the twelfth juror was then proceeded with. It was rather monotonous, as Junior and senior classes in the College of the City talesman after talesman was turned down with of New-York a gold medal of a pattern to corunfailing regularity.

Daniel J. Martin, bookkeeper and cashier, of No.

HOME NEWS.

The United Press Local News, which represents all the newspapers in New-York City that are reserving the telegraphic news of the United Press, has its headquarters at No. 21 Ann-st., New-York City. All information and documents for public use may be sent to those headquarters and they will then be distributed to all the United Press newspapers in this city, and to the United Press for dissemination throughout the country.

PROMINENT ARRIVALS AT THE HOTELS.

PROMINENT ARRIVALS AT THE HOTELS.

BREVOORT—C. Spring Rice, of the British Embassy at Washington. BRUNSWICK—Sir Julian Pauncefote, British Ambassader at Washington, and family: Baron de Sant' Anna, of Belgium, end Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kendal. CLARENDON—Fower Le Poer Trench, British Minister to Japan; Cotone; W. Le Poer Trench, of England; Licutenant-General Barker, lately British Commander at Hong Kong, and August Strunz, Austrian Consul at Baranquilla, and August Strunz, Austrian Consul at Baranquilla, Colombia. HOLLAND—Richard C. Kerens, of St. Louis. IMPERIAL—Ex-Congressman John J. Hemphill, of South Carolina, MARLBOROUGH—Caylon McMichael, of Philadelphia. MURKAY Caylon McMichael, of Philadelphia. MURKAY Connecticut. ST. CLOUID—Leutenant-Commander Connecticut. ST. CLOUID—Leutenant-Commander L. G. Tufnell, of the British Navy. ST. DENIS—Ex-Governor William E. Cameron, of Virginia. Ex-Governor William E. Cameron, of Virginia. Ex-Governor William E. Cameron, of Virginia. August at Washington, and Samuel P. Coit, of Rhode faires at Washington, and Samuel P. Coit, of Rhode faires at Washington, and Samuel P. Coit, of Rhode United States Supreme Court.

WHAT IS GOING ON TO-DAY.

Free Masons' Convention, Masonie Temple, Order of Eastern Star Convention, Association

Hearing on new Assembly district boundaries be-

Hearing on new Assembly district boundaries before Aldermen, City Hall, 2 p. m.

Ganal conference, Produce Exchange.
Meeting of physicians to oppose compulsory vacemation, Fifth Avenue Hotel, 2 p. m.
Hoard of Education, 4 p. m.
Park and Aqueduct Commissioners' meetings.
Ashland Division, No. 5, U. R. K. L., dinner, Raymond's Hotel, 5:39 p. m.
Metropolis Law School commencement, Lenox Lyceum, 8:39 p. m.

Lyceum, 8:30 p. m. Pederal Republican Club festival, Cosmopolitan

Park. 8 p. m.
Shooting contest, Glendall, N. J., Schuetzen Park.
Opening of free baths.
Training School for Nurses' commencement,
Blackwell's Island. 4 p. m.
Stereopticon lecture on Japan, by S. Toda, Fourth Avenue Presbyterian Church, 8 p. m.
Christian Endeaverers before noon prayer-meettee No. 125 Fulton-st.; N. Haymond Jelliffe, chairing, No. 113 Fulton-st.; N. Raymond Jelliffe, chair-

Louisville-New-York baseball match, Polo Grounds, 4 p. m.

NEW-YORK CITY.

William C. Whitney yesterday was elected a director of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, in place of the late James E. Granniss, president of the Tradesmen's National Bank,

The Museum of Natural History is open on weekdays from 9 to 5 o'clock. On Tuerday and Saturday evenings from 8 to 10 o'clock the public is admitted free. On Sundays it is open from 1 to 5 o'clock.
Admission is charged on Mondays and Tuesdays.

The Metropolitan Museum of Art is open free to wednesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays; on Sunday afternoons from 1 o'clock to sunset, and on the evenings of Mondays and Fridays. On Mondays and Fridays from 10 o'clock until sunset copyists, art students and members of the Museum only are admitted free; others have to pay an entrance fee of 25 cents on these two days.

The Rev. Dr. Joseph T. Duryca will be installed as pastor of the First Reformed Church, Bedfordave, and Clymerst. Brooklyn, this evening, by the North Classis of Long Island. The services will be attended by a large number of ministers and laymen of the churches of Brooklyn and New-York. Miss Harriette A. Keyser will address a meeting tached to the City, Maternity, Gouverneur and Har lem hospitals. The exercises will be held in the City Hospital, on Blackwell's Island. The steam-boat will leave East Twenty-sixth-st, at 3.39 p. m.

Commissioner Waring yesterday issued a circular men of the Street Cleaning Department put ashes and garbage into the same cart in the districts where the Board of Health has ordered these two kinds of refuse to be kept separate.

Judgment for $5,928 was entered yesterday against Marcus E. Harris, diamond merchant, of No. 17 East Sixteenth-st., and Solomon Maduro, dealer in glass at No. 61 Murray-st., in favor of Imogen-Hart, for rent of No. 463 to 463 Fifth-ave, from July 1 to November 30, 1833, formerly occupied by Helen E. Chadwick. Harris, it was said, went se-curity for Mrs. Chadwick, and it was said also that Mr. Maduro guaranteed Mr. Harris's payments.

The steamship Hilary, from Para, which arrived here yesterday, brought a large consignment of South American birds and beasts. There were five large cages of birds, thirteen monkeys, ten snakes, two armadilloes and a capybara or water-

Mayor Strong yesterday appointed another woman school inspector, Miss Phyllis Leverldze, of No. 227 East Broadway. She came to the Mayor's office and he administered the oath of office, after which the new inspector wrote her name in the appointment book. See has taken a deep interest in the education of children for some time.

Delegates from the various Good Government clubs in the city attended a council last evening in the rooms of Club A, at No. 722 Lexington-ave. About thirty men were present to take part in the government. The proceedings of the council were in secret, and the session lasted until a late hour, Mayor Strong yesterday approved the East River Tunnel bill and sent it to the Secretary of State. This was the last bill in the Mayor's hands.

The trustees of the Williamsburg Gaslight Company yesterday elected among their six directors Henry W. Cannon, William Rockefeller and C. H. Stoddard. It was understood that the new directors represented new interests in the company, and The selection of Mr. Rockefeller was taken to ean that the Standard Oil Company will have an interest in the Williamsburg concern.

The Fire Board yesterday adopted a resolution exonerating Antonio G. Puecl, contractor for blast-ing, from blame in connection with the recent ac-cidents at Ninety-third-st, and West End-ave, and at Seventy-ninth-st. and Amsterdam-ave. The Issue of new permits to Pucci was ordered.

The Society of the Sons of the Revolution in the State of New-York offers to the members of the respond with the seal of the society, reduced in size, as a prize for the best original essay on the subject, "The History of the Adoption of the First Daniel J. Martin, bookkeeper and cashier, of No. 55 West One-hundred-and-twenty-fifth-st., employed by John Shea, of West Thirty-ninth-st., proved acceptable to both sides, and took the welfth seat in the box.

Jurors Nos. 8, 3, 10 and 11 were then sworn in, Jurors Nos. 8, 3, 10 and 11 were then sworn in, Daniel J. Martin, who had just taken his seat.

The night session began at 8:15 o'clock.

George W. Walker, a grocer, of No. 450 Ninth-tee, and No. 859 Houtevard, proved acceptable to both sides and took the twelfth seat in the box, and took the twelfth seat in the box, the has a son employed in the New-York Life international company, of which John A. McCall is presient. Mr. McCall is said to be a friend of the decendant.

He has a son employed in the New-York Life inturance company, of which John A. McCall is presilent. Mr. McCall is said to be a friend of the delendant.

Assistant District-Attorney Weeks asked Justice
Assistant District-Attorney Weeks asked Justice
Barrett that the juror be not sworn until he had consulted with Colonel Fellows, the District-Atorney. Justice Barrett said he would not swent on the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present on the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present
in the juror until Colonel E. C. James was present in the juror u

AFFAIRS IN BROOKLYN.

HOODLUMS DESPOIL A CHURCH MISSION. The Rev. James H. Darlington, of Christ Episco-pal Church, who is archdeacon of Northern Brookin the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Long Island, complained to Police Captain Kitzer, of the Twentieth Precinct, yesterday that a gang of hood-lums in the neighborhood of St. David's Episcopal Mission, at Knickerbocker-ave, and Woodbine-st., had almost wresked the building. The windows have been smashed, the pews upset and part of the gas fixtures stolen.

GATHERED ABOUT THE TOWN. Police Superintendent McKelvey yesterday issued a general order commending Patrolman Brannan, of the Twenty-first Precinct, for saving four persons from drowning on the morning of June 1 off tray Ridge, an account of which was published. Andrew Verbe and Meyer Silverman, two Browns ville residents who were instrumental in carrying on the so-called court in that district, were placed on trial before Justice Harriman yesterday, charged with conspiracy. They were held for examination by the Grand Jury.

Bishop McFaul, of Trenton, will confer orders at St. John's Seminary on Saturday next, his first appearance at this ceremony since his consecration last winter. He takes the place of Bishop McDon-nell, who was looked for daily the last few weeks and had written to assure his friends of his speedy return. His health, however, prevented him from keeping to his intention, as his physician decided that it would be unsafe for him to return and resume work during the summer heat. He will delay his return until the fall.

The Long Island Association of the Sons of the Revolution will unveil with appropriate ceremo on Saturday, at Fulton and Nevins sts., a tablet marking the line of defence at the battle of Long

Martin J. Connelly and H. V. Monahan are making arrangements for an anti-trolley demonstra-tion of large proportions on July 4 in Prospect Park, if Park Commissioner Squier co. sents. Among the indictments handed up to Judge Bene

Among the indictments have the diet yesterday by the United States Circuit Grand Jury was one against Alderman John A. Roeder, of the Eastern District, for refusing to pay the $55 United States liquor tax.

Fifty moulders employed by Taylor & Co., No. Drigos-ave., returned to work yesterday, after sing out on strike since May 2. The firm agreed to give the men what they asked. The settlement was largely brought about by the intercession of Edward Feeney, a member of the State Board of Arbitration. The Rev. J. T. Duryea, who recently accepted the call extended by the congregation of the First Reformed Church, Bedford-ave, and Clymer-st, was installed as paster last evening, in the presence of a large congregation and a number of clergy attempted to kill his wife and then fired a bullet into his own head, has recovered sufficiently to be arraigned on the charges pending against him. Yesterlay Meyer was taken before Justice Laimbeer and held without bail.

The Metropolitan Museum of Art is open free to the public from 10 a. m. to sunset on Tuesdays. Wednesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays; on Sunday afternoons from 1 o'clock to sunset, and on the evenings of Mondays and Fridays. On Mondays and Fridays from 10 o'clock until sunset copylsts, art students and members of the Museum only are admitted free; others have to pay an entrance fee admitted free; others have to pay an entrance fee. A motion was made before Surrogate Abbott Wilson, A referee has passed upon these same claims and disallowed them.

SHARPSHOOTERS OF THE 71H DINED

LIEUTENANT DU VAL ENTERTAINS THE CREED-MOOR EIFLE TEAM OF COMPANY L.

Calhoun Cragin. They discussed Lieutenant Du Val's hospitable fare, and at the same time the successful shooting of Company I, which held up its end at Creedmoor most satisfactorily. This year is the first that the company has sent a team to Creedmoor, and it succeeded in getting fifth place among the company teams of crack shots. The dinner was in recognition of the company's excellent work.

WEINER ARRESTED FOR PERJURY.

HE WENT BACK ON THE STATEMENTS IN HIS AFFIDAVIT AGAINST SCHOENHOLZ-SCHOEN+ HOLZ HELD FOR FIRING NO. 206 DIVISION-ST.

The firebug sensation has taken form in the arrest of at least one of the conspirators. Detectives McCauley, O'Brien and McCloskey yesterday brought three prisoners to the District-Attorney's office, one of whom was Morris Schoenholz and the others were Isaac Zucker and Abraham Krone. Zucker was discharged after a brief exam ion by Assistant District-Attorney McManus, Krone was arraigned before Recorder Goff later. He is a clothler and lives at No. 236 Garfield-at. Brooklyn. He is accused of arson in the third de-gree in setting fire to his place on the north side of Baxter-st, and Park Row on January 1, 1863. Krone said he was not guilty, and was remanded to the Notice and the state of the sta is held under $15,000 on the charge of arson in the scond degree. He was brought to the District-Attorney's office direct from the Yorkville Court, where he was examined yesterday afternoon by Jus-

Later Schoenholz, who was charged with firing the place, No. S. East Fourth-st., was discharged by Police Justice Deuel in Yorkville Court yesterday afternoon on this complaint, and was imme-diately rearrested on a charge of setting fire to the clothing store at No. 266 Division-st., in January, 1893. This action was not unexpected as soon as the principal witness in the case, Morris Weiner, began to testify. Fire Marshal Mitchell, who conjucted the examination of the witness, had before him a copy of the sworn affidavit previously mad by the witness, and questioned him upon it. He had not proceeded far when it became apparent that Weiner proposed to repudiate his former state-ments. At almost every question he would either be affected with a lapse of memory or would give a at denial.

Abraham Levy, who appeared for the defence,

That is to say, he enjoys our advertisements, but he doesn't believe 'em. And yet our first care is to be trueand then entertaining, if we can.

Suits $13 to $28, Straw hats $1.50 to $3, Russet shors $2.50 to $4, Neglige shirts $1.50, $2, $2.50, Bathing suits $2.50 to $6.50,

ROGERS, PEET & CO.

Wednesday,

Fune 5th.

Striped Lawn Wrappers, (all colors, trimmed with dotted embroid-ery, wide satin ribbon at the waist, to tio with long bow and ends), $4.75.

Striped Lawn Wrappers, (tucked front and back or with lawn bertha). $1.50.

Cambric Night Gowns, (with fine Hamburg edging and insertion), 75 cts.

Cambric Night Gowns, (with square yoke and rufile of embroidery)

$1.25.

Cambric Skirts. tumbrella shape, trimmed with open-work embroidery).

> $1.25. Cambric Drawers,

(trimmed with embroidery). 35 & 50 cts.

Lord & Taylor, Broadway & 20th St.

THE COMING APPOINTMENTS.

APPLICANTS FOR SEATS ON THE CITY MAGIS TRATES BENCH TO KNOW THEIR PATE TO-DAY OR TO-MORROW.

The new Justices of Special Sessions and City Magistrates, under the act abolishing the Board of Po-lice Justices, will be appointed by Mayor Strong to The Passaic County Board of Freeholders held its monthly meeting yesterday, and again dashed the hopes of those persons who are anxious to have a new courthouse built on the site which the county bought three years ago, in the tract known as Colt's bought three years ago, in the tract known as Colt's the New-York City Training School for Nurses, attended to the New-York City Woman Suffrage League to the New-York City Hilling July 10 to the New-York City Woman Suffrage League to the New-York City Woman Suffrag

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

MINIATURE ALMANAC. Sunrise 4:20 Sunset 7:27 Moon sets a m 2:45 Moon's age 12 HIGH WATER TO DAY.

A.M.-Sandy Hook 6:17 Gov. Island 6:43 Hell Gate 8:36 P.M.-Sandy Hook 6:20 Gov. Island 6:45 Hell Gate 8:41

INCOMING STEAMERS. TO DAY.

Vessel. Prom. Line
Noordand Antwerp May 25 Red S
Seneta. Havana June 1 N Y & Cu THURSDAY, JUNE 6. Andes Port au Prince, June 1 Allas Edara Amsterdam May 25 Neth-Amer Saale Neth FRIDAY, JUNE 7. Augusta Victoria Hamburg, May 28 Hamb-Amer Liverpeal, May 29 White Star ritt California Hamburg, May 29 White Star ritt California Hamburg, May 24 Hamb-Amer ritt Caribbee St Crob, June 1 N Y & Caba House St Crob, June 1 Canada House Star June 1 Red D House Canada Liverpeal, June 1 Red D House Canada Hamburg, June 1 Red D House Ca

OUTGOING STEAMERS.

TO-DAY. Vessel, Fer. Line. Mails close, Vessel sails, Ardannihor, Mataneas, Munson. 12.39 m. 12.39 m. Teutonic, Liverpool, White Star. 12.09 m. 3.09 pm. St. Louis, Southampton, American. 809 a. m. 11.99 a. m. Berlin, Southampton, American. 809 a. m. 11.99 a. m. Berlin, Southampton, American. 4.090 pm. 12.99 m. Portja, St. Johns, Ref. Cross. 10.090 a. m. 12.99 m. Cof. Washington, Havana, N. Y.& Cuba. 1.99 pm. 3.99 pm. THURSDAY, JUNE 6.

FRIDAY, JUNE 7. | Regulus | Kingston | Kerr | 12:00 m |
| State of Texus | Brunswick | Morgan | 12:00 m |
| Seminole | Charleston | Clyde | 12:00 m |

Costumers. our Trade Mark guarantees Correct Style & Perfect Fit

Semi-Annual

Clearance Sale.

High Class Bargains. Shirt Waists were $5. Silver Belts . Silk Waists . .

Silk Petticoats .

Crepon Skirts Were $15. Linen Suits . 916 Tailor Made Suits

830 Capes & Skirts Dinner Gowns . $15 Velvet Capes ...

Cloth Capes. *12 Jackets Were $20.

Stored and Insured FREE altered or repaired by us during Summer months.

Our goods must be seen to be appreciated.

39 & 41 West 23d St., NORTH SIDE, Between 5th and 6th Aves.

COOLING.

Your light derby that seemed so cool some days ago feels about twice its usual weight now, and you're "wear-ing" it in your hand. Let us sell you a straw hat that is comfortable, seasonable and fashion-$1 for our lowest.

$3 for our highest.

Some things that go with a straw hat: A negligee shirt, collar and cuffs on or off, as you like $1.25 & $1.50.
Filmy French underwear, $1.00.
by in the shade neckwear, 2 for 25c., 25c., &

20-inch silk hemstitch handkerchiefs, 25c. each.

AND COMPANY. Two Stores: Broadway and Canal St. Broadway below Chambers St.

HACKETT, CARHART

ner Cottage City, Bennett, Portland-Heratlo Hall, her Sarat etc. Bence, Havana-James E. Ward & Co. ner. St. Leuis, Randle, Southampton-International Indian Prince (Br), Lee, Pernambuco, Rio te. John C Seager. Algonitin, Platt, Charleston and Jacksonville Bye & C. einner Westernland (Delg), Weyer, Antwerp-Interna-

Steamers Nacoschee, Savannah, Kaiser Wilhelm II Gert, Bremen, via Sauthampton, Yorktown, Norfolk and ownert News, Algonoum, Charleston and Jacksenville, Jolicia Giri, Genea and Leghorn, Santuit Boston, Shaw-uit, Baston, Guyandette, West Point, Spero, Baracoa, aracas, La Gunya, orta Cabello and Curacca, Saratoga, avana and Mexican ports, Cevic (Br., Liverpool; Jason Ir), Annatio Bay and Port Maria.

ner Weimar (Ger), Steencken, Baltimore-Oelrichs

THE MOVEMENTS OF STEAMERS.

be affected with a lapse of memory or would give a flat denial.

Abraham Levy, who appeared for the defence, inside the experiment of the control of the complaint day that Mitchell found the complaint with a final and sadd: "I withdraw the complaint with the complaint with the control of the control New York May 31.

Steamer Panama (Fr), Chabot, salled from Bordeaux for New York June 1.

Steamer Alastia (Gr), Swain, from Naples May 31 for New York, passed Gibraltar June 4.

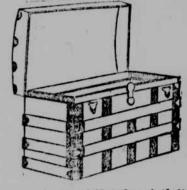

Steamer State of Nebraska (Gr), Brown, from New-York May 25 for Glasgow, arrived at Moville June 4.

Steamer Fulda (Ger), Mejer, from New-York, via Southampton, arrived at Bremechaven at 7 a.m. June 4.

Steamer Werra (Ger), Polite, from New-York May 18, arrived at Naples June 1.

Steamer Guit of Taranto (Gr), from New-York March 7, via Mauritius May 15, arrived at Newcastle, N S W, June 2.

UNUSUAL VALUES TRUNKS and BAGS TRUNKS.

Canvas Covered Trunks, cloth lined, one tray, with hat box, Excelsior lock, four heavy strap hinges, heavy bolts,

34 in. 32 in. 5.95

6.30

6.75

Genuine Grain Leather Club Bags. leather lined, leather covered frame, 16 in.

2.80 2.50 LARGE ASSORTMENT Steamer Chairs, Rugs, Satchels and Other Requisites at EXTREMELY LOW PRICES.

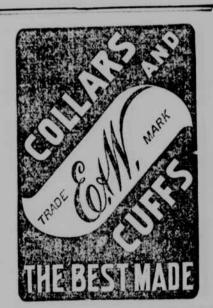

Summer Silks.

This season's figured designs-on Black, Navy Blue, Brown, Green, Hussar, Reseda and White grounds, > 40 cts. per yard. formerly 75 cts.

Appropriate for cool dresses, or separate waists. Lord & Taylor.

Broadway & 20th St.

FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE

Dainty Morsels-Beauties All.

A quaint and wise little mahogany tea table, formed of two ovals-the lower and larger oval for the odd teacups; the upper, finished at either end with odd gold handles. A diminutive teakwood stand for photographs, richly carved and ebonized, adds a delightful bit of emphasis to the summer-parlor colors. Everywhere are treasures to choose

Steamer Virginia (Ger), School, sailed from Stettin for from and prices are lower than you Steamer Panama (Fr), Chabot, sailed from Pools think, when you

"BUY OF THE MAKER"

GEO. C.FLINT CO.

43.45 AND 47 WEST 23.ST. NEAR BROADWAY. PACTORY: 154 AND 156 WEST 19" STREET

CARPETINGS

Our Royal Wiltons and Wilton Velvets, We think, are the best wearing carpets made; WE GUARANTEE THEM! NEW WEAVE INGRAINS, MATTINGS.

"WE BEAT THE WORLD!"

Great Reductions in Every Department.